Mr. Stanley Roth, Staff Director
Subcommittee on Asian and Pacific Affairs
Committee on Foreign Affairs
United States House of Representatives
Washington DC 20515-6132

Dear Mr. Roth:

The Office of East Asian Analysis is pleased to invite you to address our conference on the Philippines [redacted] on the evening of 13 October. A tentative agenda for the evening is attached. Please confirm your plans to attend no later than 5 October. [redacted]

The Philippine conference will draw analysts and officers from several US government agencies including the Department of State, the Defense Department, the National Security Agency, the Central Intelligence Agency, and the US Mission in Manila. Participants will discuss the continuing threats to stability in Manila, and the increasing strains on US-Philippine relations. [redacted]

The Office of East Asian Analysis will provide you with transportation leaving the Capitol Hill area at approximately 1500 on 13 October and returning to Washington 14 October at about 0930. We will also provide on-site lodging and reimburse you for your dinner and breakfast. Dress is casual. [redacted]
